AMERICAN ANCESTRY.

THE purpose of this work is, principally, to register in a convenient and simple form the pedigree of any one person, and thus record for all time many important facts in the history of families which would otherwise be lost. Another primary object is to publish here the ancestry of a person as complete as it is known, as a means of obtaining additional information regarding it. It is also designed to be a convenient work of reference, to show the origin of the various American families. However indifferent some may affect to be regarding this question of ancestry, those who have a good pedigree will usually have a natural pride in it. Many lineages must of necessity contain nothing but simple records of uneventful generations, but they will preserve facts of great interest to descendants which would otherwise in many cases be lost in the history of a family. The plan of the work is somewhat similar in idea to the well-known English works, but altered to suit the conditions of American society, and in detail is as follows:

The surname or family name is given first, with the given name, residence, birthplace, and date of birth. This is followed by remarks of a brief biographical character, giving the principal events in the individual's life, such as occupation, college degrees if any, authorship, public service, experiences, and if married, date, wife's name and parentage, with remarks relating to her ancestry. If the individual whose lineage is given had brothers the same facts may be stated respecting each of them, in order of their birth, commencing with the eldest. This completes the first generation in tracing back the lineage. Next is given the father's name, followed by same class of facts, and so continued back in male line as far as can be traced. The name of son, father, grandfather, etc., in direct male line are printed in black type. As the abbreviations are all of the most ordinary kind, it is unnecessary to mention them here.

The first part of the document discusses the importance of maintaining accurate records of all transactions. It emphasizes that every entry should be supported by a valid receipt or invoice. This ensures transparency and allows for easy verification of the data.

The primary data was gathered through direct observation and interviews with key stakeholders. Secondary data was obtained from existing reports and databases.

The third section details the statistical analysis performed on the collected data. Various tests were used to determine the significance of the findings. The results indicate a strong correlation between the variables studied, suggesting that the observed trends are not merely coincidental.

Finally, the document concludes with a series of recommendations based on the findings. May 31, 1837, d. June 22, 1892 [dau. of Col. Thomas Howard], m. 2d Apr. 26, 1894 Mrs. Nannie Isabella Adams); son of Jacob Ritter of Freedom Md., b. in Fayetteville Pa. Nov. 20, 1804, d. in Freedom Dec. 25, 1870 (m. Dec. 31, 1829 Elizabeth Neff, dau. of Philip J. Neff of war of 1812, son of Col. Michael Neff a drill officer in rev. war, member of light horse under Frederic the Great in seven years' war); son of Louis Ritter of Fayetteville Pa., b. in Frederick co. Md. Oct. 20, 1778, d. in Fayetteville 1853 (m. 1803 Margaret Stall); son of Elias of Fayetteville, b. in Frederick co. Md. 1748 (m. 1777 Catherine Young). The founder of the Ritter family in Maryland was Elias Ritter who settled on the western shore of the province in 1650. He was a native of Budingen, Hesse Darmstadt, Germany, where it is said he possessed an estate covering twenty-four square miles of land, embracing three towns within its bounds. Budingen, the main town, was fortified, and contained the "Ritter castle," the walls of which were still standing in 1848. The family furnished men and munitions to the Protestant cause during the "Thirty Years War," and at the close of that struggle was sent into exile and their property confiscated. Elias Ritter went to England during the protectorate of Oliver Cromwell, there joined one of the expeditions sent by

Lord Baltimore to Maryland, and settled in the western part of Anne Arundel county. At the time of the formation of Frederick county the family was located on the banks of the Monocacy river. The names of the principal members of the family at that time were Elias, John, Wm., Tobias, Michael and Louis. John, a son of the founder of the family, assisted Wm. Penn in surveying the province of Pennsylvania in 1682, for which service he received 5,000 acres of land in Berks co. Pa. A descendant of this Ritter occupied a seat in the 28th and 29th Congresses. Wm. and Elias Ritter were members of Captain William Keepert's company, Stricker's battalion, Maryland line, 1776. The Ritter family came into prominence in the twelfth century for the part taken in the Crusades; and for services rendered at that time a tract of land at and around Budingen, Hesse Darmstadt, Germany, was granted the family. It is believed the "Ritter Castle" at Budingen was built early in the thirteenth century. A member of the family in 1848 saw the records of the family which had been handed down through a number of generations, giving a history of the family prior to and during the "Thirty Years War." Every effort has been made to trace this particular history, but so far has failed. A relative in Philadelphia saw it just before the late war, but no one knows anything of it now. The written history of the family during the seventeenth and eighteenth centuries was destroyed by fire in May, 1848. The arms of the Ritter family are thus described: Parted per bend or, between two fleur de lys, the first argent the second azure. Helmet front faced and crowned or: Crest: a demiman issuing out of the helmet, holding in his dexter hand a fleur de lys argent. The bend in arms indicate the belt of a knight. The Crest indicates that the bearer of the arms in some of the wars captured many prisoners who were ransomed. "Or" means gold, and is an emblem of great worth. "Argent" signifies silver and issued in arms as an emblem of purity. "Azure" means blue and is an emblem of truth and constancy. Ritter defined in Latin is Miles; in French, Chevalier; in English, Knight; in German, Ritter.

Elbert and Marten Adriaense were the sons of Adriaen Reyerse of Flatbush L. I. who with his brother Marten Reyerse came from Amsterdam. The history of this family strikingly exhibits the early (Dutch) habit of changing names. Reyerse, itself no surname but a patronymic, was retained by the descendants of Marten and who now bear the name of Ryerson. Of the two brothers, Elbert settled at Flushing and his posterity there, in Dutchess county and elsewhere, compose the Adriaense family. Marten (junior) remained in Flatbush and his sons took the patronymic Martense and became the progenitors of the Martence family. (Annals of Newtown, p. 386.) [The name is really a very old one and was originally spelt Reyertzoon, shortened in the Dutch fashion to Reyerz, hence in Canada we have to-day two spellings. Those descended from Samuel call themselves Ryerse, and those whose ancestor was Joseph, Ryerson. One Willem Reyerzoon was burgomaster of Amsterdam in 1390; Claes Symon Reyerzoon burgomaster, 1414; Willem, again, 1418; and so on until 1585, when the name disappears from the records of Amsterdam. They took an active part in the expulsion of the Spanish from Holland, two of them were banished by the Spaniards for heresy and one, Albert Reyerzoon was beheaded with two other burgers for the same offense on April 12, 1537. Ryerson family arms: Quarterly, 1 and 4, sa. a tree withered and eradicated arg.; 2 and 3 arg., three halberts bend ways and in bend sinister, the middle one longer than the others, sa., the blades vert: surtont, az. a martlet, or. Crest: a swan roussant. Motto: Voor God en Vaterland.

The first part of the document discusses the importance of maintaining accurate records of all transactions. It emphasizes that every entry should be supported by a valid receipt or invoice. This ensures transparency and allows for easy verification of the data.

In addition, the document outlines the necessary steps for reconciling accounts. This involves comparing the internal records with the bank statements to identify any discrepancies. If a difference is found, it is crucial to investigate the cause immediately to prevent further errors.

Finally, the document stresses the need for regular audits. By conducting periodic reviews, the organization can ensure that its financial reporting remains accurate and reliable. This practice also helps in identifying potential areas for improvement and strengthening internal controls.

The second part of the document provides a detailed overview of the company's financial performance over the past year. It includes a comprehensive analysis of revenue, expenses, and profit margins.

The revenue section shows a steady increase in sales, driven by a combination of new product launches and expanded market reach. This growth has been a key factor in the company's overall success.

On the expense side, the document highlights the company's commitment to operational efficiency. Through strategic cost management and process optimization, the organization has managed to reduce its overheads while maintaining high-quality standards.

The resulting profit margins are a testament to the company's strong financial discipline and effective resource allocation. These metrics provide a clear picture of the company's financial health and its ability to generate sustainable value for its stakeholders.

The family of Waller, one of the most ancient and distinguished among the English gentry, was founded by Alnred de Waller, a Norman, who settled in the county of Kent and died in 1183. From him descended the Wallers of that and other countries. Richard Waller of Groombridge, Kent, distinguished himself very highly at the battle of Agincourt, where he took prisoner the French prince, the Duke of Orleans; and Henry V of England, in honor of his services, added to the ancient arms of the family (which were "sable three walnut leaves or, between two bendlets ar"), the crest "an oak tree proper, on the sinister side an escutcheon pendant, charged with the arms of France (three fleurs de lis) with a label of three points," and the motto. "Hæc fructus virtutis." Among the other distinguished men of the family were the parliamentary generals Sir William and Sir Hardress Waller, who were of the Kentish branch, and Edmund Waller, the poet, who was of the Wallers of Beaconsfield, Buckinghamshire, sprung from a young son of the Groombridge family. John Waller, second son of George Waller of Groombridge, had a son Robert of Beaconsfield, who married Elizabeth — and died in 1558, leaving issue: i, Francis (will dated 1549), married Anne —; ii,

Thomas; iii, Edward, married — Cecil, and had a son Robert, who married Anne Hamden (sister of John Hamden) and died in 1616, leaving issue Edmund of Beaconsfield, the poet, who was ten years old at his father's death; iv, Ralph, who had a son Francis alive 1549; v, daughter, married — Pope; vi, daughter, married — Gresham; vii, son, married — Smith. Edmund Waller, the poet, first married Anne Banks; second wife Miss Breese, she was the mother of five sons and six daughters. The first to whom the Virginia family can be directly traced was John Waller, M. D., born 1617 (a grandson of the poet), a prominent citizen of Newport Paganel, Buckinghamshire. He married Mary Key and emigrated from England to Virginia 1635, and was alive in 1688, with the following issue by his wife Mary Key: i, Leonard; ii, William; iii, John; iv, Mary; v, Thomas; vi, Steven; vii, Benjamin; viii, Edmund, M. D., a senior fellow of Saint John's college, Cambridge, where he died in 1745; ix, James; x, Jemima. Col. John Waller, born 1673, gentleman (an appendage to their names that he and his sons used during life in their deeds and other important papers), was a member of the houses of burgesses 1719, the first clerk of Spotsylvania county from 1722 to 1742, and was the third son of the English emigrant John Waller and his wife Mary Key. He married Dorothy King and lived on his estate, "Newport," Spotsylvania co., Va. He died 1754. Dorothy his wife born 1675, died 1759, aged 84; both were buried at Newport, Spotsylvania co., their home-stand. The silver seal of Col. John Waller, gentleman, is still in existence, though it has passed into the possession of a family descended from his daughter Mary, and not of the Waller name. The coat of arms consists of a shield, the contour of which is highly ornamented. The shield is crossed obliquely by a band, on which are three walnut leaves, one above another. The crest is an oak tree, from the branches of which is suspended on the right side a shield on which are fleur de lis, representative of the arms of France. Mary Waller, the oldest child and only daughter of Col. John Waller, gentleman, married Mr. Zackary Lewis, a lawyer, Jan. 9th, 1725, aged 25 years, died March 23d, 1781, 12 minutes after 12 o'clock at night. She left four sons and four daughters, each in comfortable circumstances. Anne Lewis, the eldest, married Chancellor George Wythe of Virginia, died childless; i, John Lewis (known as the honest lawyer in his day) married Mildren, daughter of Col. Robert Lewis of Belvoir, Albermarle co., Va., who was the brother of Col. Fielding Lewis, who married Gen. His mother Dorothy left him in her will, among other things, her large silver spoons, a mourning ring given her by her husband, a large Bible and Common Prayer Book, which shows, as is well known, that the old Waller clerk belonged to the Church of England, and the opening clause of his will indicates that he was a man of exemplary piety. He willed his seal to his eldest son, and wishes it to descend in right line forever. When this seal is applied to red wax there appears the Waller coat of arms, crest and motto, "Hæc fructus virtutis." DUEL, WILLIAM DAVOL; wife's name unknown, although several times mentioned. Nothing has been discovered so far to indicate whence he emigrated. The name is doubtless Norman-French, but given names of children is an indication that this family had been so long in England that their French given names had ceased to be used. The first record of him so far is when he applied for land in Duxbury Mass. Aug. 3, 1640 (see Duxbury hist.). At Braintree a son was b. June 24, 1643, who d. July of the same year. From Dec. 26, 1645 until Oct. 2, 1650 there are various records of him in Rehobeth Mass. (see hist. Rehobeth). May 17, 1653 was made freeman of Newport. The last record of him is on the tax-roll of Newport 1680. His children were: 1 John Davol, b. June 24, 1643, d. July 1643, 2

Joseph, b. —, d. Feb. 1716, was of West-erly and Newport, and is ancestor of most of the Conn. and R. I. lines, who still spell their name De Vol, etc., etc., 3 Jonathan, b. —, d. after 1709, his wife was Hannah Adley, was of Newport and then of Dartmouth, 4 Benjamin, b. —, d. — settled in Monmouth N. J., where he had land from his father in 1672, most of his descendants spell the name Du Val. Jonathan² (Wm.¹) had: 1 Jonathan, d. 1709, wife afterward, who m. Hannah —, 2 Joseph, d. 1726, wife afterward, who m. Mary Soul, 3 Benjamin, d. 1735, wife b. June 4, 1680, d. after 1735, who m. Ann Brownell, 4 Jeremiah, d. Nov. 29, 1753, m. 1st May 24, 1711, who m. 1st Sarah Allen, 2d Sarah Whitridge, 5 Mary, m. May 22, 1714 James Mosher, 6 William, d. 1772, who m. Sarah Sisson, 7 Ann, who m. Benj. Sweat, 8 Hannah, d. after 1744, who m. Joseph Weeden, 9 Abigail, who m. Jobe Milk, 10 Sarah, m. July 25, 1717 Hugh Mosher, b. Nov. 16, 1690, 11 Elizabeth, m. June 22, 1716 George Brownell, b. Apr. 13, 1693, d. 1742. Jonathan³ (Jonathan,² William¹). Will proved Sep. 7, 1709; executrix, wife Hannah —. Another record gives Jonathan's³ wife's name as Mary Clark. It is probable that Hannah was a second wife, and it may be that these children may belong to one or both of his wives. The records at Dartmouth Mass. spell the name Devil. Gives to William his homestead farm, which came to him from his father Jonathan Davol by gift, his wife to be allowed her one-third during life. To his son Jonathan 50 acres. To these two sons privilege in lands in Dartmouth. To his dau. Hannah £6, to be paid when she is 20; to dau. Aliah £6 when 18, and £6 to dau. Meribah. Inventory of personal £176 7s. 6d.; house and land £100. Children: 1 William, b. Apr. 16, 1698, m. Elizabeth Whitehead, 2 Jonathan, b. May 1, 1702, m. Sarah Carlmon, 3 Hannah, b. Jan. 29, 1699, m. John Tripp, 4 Abiah (spelled Abpire and Apphia), b. unknown, 5 Meribah, b. Oct. 21, 1707, 6 Mary, b. Feb. 26, 1710, m. Richard Booloe. William⁴ (Jonathan,³ Jonathan,² William¹)

m. Elizabeth Whitehead. Their children were (our records begin here): 1 Apphia, b. Mar. 6, 1718 (so spelled in our records). 2 Jonathan, b. Jan. 16, 1720, no record, 3 William, b. Mar. 4, 1728, d. June 22, 1814, m. Melitable Whitehead, b. —, d. Mar. 12, 1812. There is mentioned in the same record with the above three children the death of a Noe Duel Mar. 8, 1797, and a Jacob Duel d. 1754, who we suppose were also children of Wm.⁴ Apphia probably d. unm., as she signed herself spinster in the receipt she gave her brother William Davol for "her portion of her father's estate (£15) and other legacies left her by her father's last will and testament." This receipt is dated Sep. 6, 1760, showing that her father Wm. died before that date. In Feb. 5, 1750 Wm. Davell was appointed guardian over William Hudleston, aged 14, at Taunton Mass. by George Leonard, judge of the probate of wills in the co. of Bristol. This Wm. was probably Wm.⁴ In 1777 Wm. Duel⁵ was constable at Dartmouth Mass. It is probable that Wm. Divil⁶ was in Dartmouth as late as Jan. 27, 1783, as there was a receipt given that date for an account owed Bereah Goddard signed by Henry Howland, Exec. J. C. North says he had knowledge of the first three children of Wm.⁴ from sources in Dutchess co. N. Y. There was a Wm. Duel sold land in Stanford, Dutchess co. N. Y. in 1806, and it is believed that he was Wm. Duel,⁵ as Ezra Duel, son of Wm.,⁵ was from Dutchess co. N. Y. to Hebron N. Y., where he (Ezra) appears as early as Oct. 21, 1791. Of Jonathan Duel⁷ (Wm.,⁴ Jonathan,³ Jonathan,² Wm.¹) nothing is known for certain, but there was a Jonathan Duel who lived in Saratoga N. Y. and who d. at the age of 104 years, who may have been identical with him. His children, in part at least, were Jonathan, Gideon, Adosha, Seth, Bulah and Reuben. The children of Wm. Duel⁸ (Wm.,⁴ Jonathan,³ Jonathan,² Wm.¹) were: 1 Levi, 2 Richard, 3 Ruth, b. —, d. Mar. 20, 1840, m. Joseph Tanner, 4 Bashba, m. — Tripp, 5 Seth, 6 Jonathan, m. Patience Milk, 7 William Jr., 8 Ezra, b. July 21,

1766, d. Mar. 30, 1844, was twice m.; no dates of either marriage have yet been found. Ezra's first wife was Deborah Stark, b. Apr. 26, 1766, d. Feb. 12, 1826. (Deborah Stark was, according to our tradition, a cousin of Maj.-Gen. John Stark of Bennington fame, but I never have been able to trace any relationship to that family, although I have learned that Archibald Stark, the father of Maj.-Gen. John, had two brothers that also came to this country at about the same time that he did. Their names were John and Nathan Stark.) Ezra Duel's second wife was Elizabeth Sherman, b. 1794, d. Jan. 1, 1878. She was the widow of Gideon Sherman, b. 1795, d. Oct. 29, 1826, m. to Sherman Oct. 16, 1815 at Exeter R. I. Her maiden name was Dawley and she was a native of R. I. By Deborah Stark Ezra Duel had 11 children and by Elizabeth Sherman 1 child. Ezra Duel came to Hebron N. Y. with his brother Jonathan Duel, whose wife was Patience Milk. There are numerous descendants of Jonathan now living in Hebron and about adjoining towns. Jonathan d. of small-pox. There is no record of him or his wife so far as I can learn. In fact, the knowledge I have of the brothers and sisters of Ezra Duel came from my gt.-uncle Morgan Duel. Ruth Duel, who m. Joseph Tanner, came to this town to reside, but her descendants are scattered. Levi, Seth, Richard and William are supposed to have settled in Warren and Essex cos. N. Y., and I am certain from correspondence I have had that a part of them at least did so. Ezra Duel⁹ (Wm.,⁵ Wm.,⁴ Jonathan,³ Jonathan,² Wm.¹) had by wife Deborah Stark: 1 Nathan Duel, b. Sep. 7, 1789, d. July 18, 1830, m. June 6, 1808 Sarah Whitney, dau. of Cornelius Whitney and — Graves, Sarah Whitney b. Apr. 22, 1791, d. Nov. 26, 1860, she was probably born in Granville N. SWIFT. JAMES SWIFT was b. at Crediton in the co. of Devonshire Eng. about 12 miles from the city of Exeter Jan. 29, 1739 O. S. He had two brothers, namely Uriah and Richard, and one sister Betsey. Little is known of James' father and mother, for his mother d. when James was quite young and his father m. again. Not liking his stepmother James enlisted in the British army. Not long after war was declared against France and James was removed with his army May

18, 1756 to the American colonies. His army was stationed on the Canada frontier and James was at different times at Crown Point, Ticonderoga, Niagara and Fort Win. Henry. He was at various times under the command of Gen. Johnson, Capt. D. Elle and Gen. Putnam. In 1759 the British forces were divided into 3 armies. James was assigned to that division of the army that was under Gen. Wolfe that stormed Quebec. He was wounded on the Plains of Abraham by a sword cut and carried the scar through life. He received his discharge from the army Sep. 19, 1766 at New York. From N. Y. he went to Wallingford Ct. where he met Mehitable the daughter of Thomas Merwin and married her (no date of marriage). Mehitable Merwin was born Jan. 5, 1744. Besides Mehitable Merwin there were three boys born to Thomas Merwin, namely, Thomas Jr., Samuel and Stephen. Of these boys Thomas Jr. and Stephen moved to Lexington N. Y. and raised large families. Samuel Merwin was a sea captain in the West India trade. During the American revolution he went to Ticonderoga, was taken with dysentery and died and was buried there unmarried it is supposed. By James Swift and Mehitable Merwin there were 10 children as follows, all born at Wallingford Ct.: 1 William Swift, b. Sep. 28, 1769, d. Sep. 1, 1858. He married Almira Butricks of Goshen, lived there until 1806. Moved to Coldbrook Ct. Was deacon in Coldbrook for many years and died there. His wife died 1828. 2 Persis Swift was b. Dec. 9, 1770, d. GILLESPIE. The Gillespie family belonged to the Campbell clan, their home was in the highlands of Scotland. They took a prominent part in the early history of Scotland, both in ecclesiastical and in civil affairs. They were strong adherents to the Calvinistic doctrine, one of whom helped to frame the "Confession of Faith." They fought for religious liberty, the right to worship God according to the dictates of an enlightened conscience. About the close of the seventeenth century, three brothers of the Gillespies crossed into Ireland, they settled in County Antrim. Their names were as follows, David, John, JAMES. During the Revolution of 1690 James enlisted and fought under William III, Prince of Orange, with whom he crossed the Boyne July 1690; his sword is still kept a relic by one of his descendants. Immediately after the decisive battle the Gillespies moved to County Monaghan, Ireland, where they owned a large tract of land. They were linen drapers. The linen was woven by hand looms; they also bleached it, and prepared it for the Belfast market. JAMES Gillespie married Elizabeth Riddle about the year 1700. They had six children, three sons: James, John, and Matthew, and three daughters, Elizabeth, Letitia, and Sarah. James came to America in about the middle of the 18th century, there is nothing definite known about him. His first active service was at the Sutledge, in the East Indies Three days' engagement; he fell on the second day wounded, lay all night on the battlefield among the dying and the dead, was picked up next day and carried to the hospital, where he remained six months; he received a medal for Moodkee, and a clasp for Ferozshah. He was through the Crimean war, having received Crimean medal, Turkish war medal, and a clasp for Sebastopol, also a medal for long service, and good conduct, in all four medals and two clasps. Jane died in 1847, she was united in marriage to William Mills.
